

George Weissman Receives Coveted City College Medal

The Alumni Association of The City College of New York has awarded George Weissman, president of Philip Morris Inc., the Townsend Harris Medal for "distinguished post-graduate achievement."

Townsend Harris, for whom the award is named, was the founder of

George Weissman

The City College of New York. He also served as the first United States consul general to Japan.

Previous recipients of the medal include Bernard M. Baruch; Stanley H. Fuld, Chief Justice, New York Court of Appeals; U. S. Senator Robert Wagner; U. S. Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter; Paul Hahn, American Tobacco Co., and three Nobel winners, Robert Hofstad, Arthur Kornhauser and Dr. Jonas Salk.

Philip Morris Names Kenneth P. Wilson D. C. Chain Manager

Philip Morris Domestic has appointed Kenneth P. Wilson manager of chain sales for the Washington, D. C., area.

In his new post, Mr. Wilson will develop and implement programs to distribute Philip Morris products through national, regional and local food chain stores in this marketing area.

Mr. Wilson joined Philip Morris in 1958 as a sales representative. He attended both the University of Tennessee and George Washington University.

Born in Loretto, Tenn., he enjoys golf, tennis and bridge and is currently a member of the Elks Club and the Terrace Club. For his work in community service he was awarded the "Distinguished Service Award" from the Jaycees in 1963 and the "Outstanding Man of the Year Award" in Clarksville, W. Va., by the Hope Natural Gas Co.

Mr. Wilson is married to the former Rosemary Oliverio. They have two daughters.

Philip Morris Names Jones Division Sales Manager

TACOMA, WASH. (CS) — Dan J. Jones of Tacoma has been appointed division sales manager for Philip Morris Domestic, according to John P. Jeb Lee, national sales manager.

Mr. Jones joined Philip Morris in 1953 as a sales representative and was promoted to military representative in 1967.

City College Alumni Medals To Honor Achievements of 7

Seven City College alumni will be awarded the college's 35th annual Townsend Harris Medals for "distinguished post-graduate achievement."

The medals, which are awarded by the Alumni Association, were named after the college's founder.

The recipients of the 1968 medals are the following:

Prof. Maurice Austin, Class of 1925, an authority on income and taxation.

Prof. Ernest Borek, Class of 1933, a biochemist and member of the college faculty since 1935.

Dr. Edward A. Gall, M.D., Class of 1927, a pathologist.

Fred M. Hechinger, Class of 1943, education editor of The New York Times.

Dr. Mario A. Pel, Class of 1925, a linguist.

Dr. Alvin E. Radkowsky, Class of 1935, an authority on nuclear reactor design.

George Weissman, Class of 1939, president of Philip Morris, Inc.